Three Deaths in Family.

Mrs. H. C. Bolton, of the Brownsville neighborhood, died Sunday night after a lingering illness of tuberculosis.

Deceased was 63 years old, and one of the county's oldest citizens, having been reared in this county. Her answering of the final summons made three deaths to occur in her family in the past year—herself, a son and a daughter. She is survived by two children, Mrs. M. Jones, of Brownsville, and Henry Bolton, of Malden, Mo., both of whom were with her at her death, also one brother, Bud Higgs, of Memphis. Her husband preceded her to the grave about six years.

Twenty years ago Mrs. Bolton united with the Methodist church. She was one of the most esteemed and kindly ladies of this section, and her death will be sad news to her many friends.

Funeral services were held at the grave by Rev. Jones, of Crystal, and the remains were laid to rest in the Barnett graveyard Tuesday morning.

To lose three loved ones within so brief time is a sorrow difficult to bear, and the surviving children have our sincere sympathy.

In a column of "don'ts" for girls, a lady writer says—Don't lie in bed while your mother cooks the breakfast. Of course not, girls. Don't think of such a thing. Sit up in an arm chair and read "The Rosary." Give mother a chance to make the bed while the biscuits are browning.

How few of us are really our own boss. The married men are subject to their wives, the bachelors obey their sweethearts, the old maids cater to their cats and poodles, while all of us bow to that weak thing called public opinion. We come into the world without our consent we leave it against protest, and while here kick at everything that crosses our path, but all to no purpose. The old world wags on, not caring a farthing why till we turn up our toes and die and then maybe to freeze or fry.—Ex.
